

GDPR

About this notice –

In this privacy notice, “we”, “us” and “our” means Musselburgh Festival. This notice was last updated on 11th April 2022.

What this notice covers

This privacy notice explains how we collect and use your personal information.

These sections cover your use of our other products and services for example when you:

- use our websites, e.g. www.musselburghfestival.org;
- vote in our election
- send us messages, videos and photos
- interact with us or our content on social media or in forums
- watch our videos/films on any platform where we have your consent to collect your data.

What this notice doesn't cover

We publish specific privacy notices for some of our products and services which may apply in addition to or instead of this privacy notice.

This privacy notice doesn't cover companies, services or applications that we don't own or control, or people that we don't employ or manage. This includes (without limitation): third party websites, pages, applications/widgets or other services that we link to or offer via our products and services.

In these cases, please instead refer to the privacy notice of the relevant third party.

Information you submit to us when you register to vote in our election:

title, name, postcode, email address, and date of birth.

We use your information so we can meet our legal and regulatory obligations

- we need to know your date of birth because we are not allowed to use your information in the same way as a legal adult if you are below the age of 18;
- we need to know you are over 12 years old to be allowed to vote
- we need to keep records for our audits and accounts obligations.
- vote verification

We also need to use your postcode (or part of it) or other location data to ensure our Legal basis is met with due diligence.